Schweppes chooses The Gin Corner for its first flagship store in Italy

OUR HISTORY

As of June 2013, The Gin Corner was inaugurated as the first Italian Gin bar. The idea was to transform the image of an anonymous hotel bar into a temple for Gin Lovers. We have selected the best Gin Labels, with the help of Patrick Pistolesi, one of the best bartenders in Rome who has more than 25 years of experience. He loves the art of mixology and knows the history of Gin inside out. In his work for The Gin Corner, has created some unforgettable signature cocktails and has helped us spread the culture of Gin to everyone.

We serve over 120 brands of international Gins, no one is better than another, it's simply a matter of taste.

Over the 40 years of his bartending, Angelo De Valeri has prepared an innumerable amount of cocktails. His experience comes from his travels, his encounters and his passion for bartending. He has won major contests like the Martini Grand Prix, and worked with the finest professionals in the world. In the late 80s he came back to Rome and began working for the best hotels in the capital. For him, the bar counter is like a theatre's stage, where the barman is not the main character, but only the spectator of what is happening on the other side of the counter. He is passionate about gin and says that the Martini is the cocktail he has prepared the most throughout his career. He is also a wine expert.

MARTINI AND I

In the 12 years of apprenticeship for the work which I am in love with, today I am grateful to Tommy, Heinz, Louis, my father, and also a bit to myself for the choices I made at that time.

Choices that allowed me to work in Bars of the best hotels of Edinburgh, Frankfurt am Main, Lausanne and to finally land at Le Grand Hotel di Roma, where, as always, hospitality of luxury is realized for the top international clientele.

Among them there is a group of customers that clearly stand out for some qualities that may seem natural, but I have seen them grow, I know how they have acquired the skills to better appreciate the pleasures of life.

I am particularly grateful to them for passing on some of their style, but here I will stop.

I'm talking about the Martinians.

Let me pass on the term, for which I also received the support of Umberto Eco during a round table on the Martini Cocktail at the Martini Terrace in Milan.

Quotes and aphorisms on the Martini Cocktail fill the pages of literature throughout the twentieth century, but even today Woody Allen does not miss an opportunity to drink at least a couple in the scenes of his films.

Among those I gladly remember, Woody Allen at a bar with a lady:

"Two Martinis very dry, please".

"How do you know what I drink?"

"Ah, you want one also, then three!"

But even Dorothy Parker (American poetess of the 40's)

"I like to have a Martini

Two at the very most

After three I'am under the table

After four I'am under my Host"

And then Bernard De Voto (1948 Pulitzer Prize for Across the wide Missouri)

"The Martini. The supreme American gift to the World."

But that of Sandro Viola beats them all. (La Repubblica 2003)

"Look at what Caro G. had to say, The Martini is the thing that when you ask for it in any Bar of the civilized world it gains you respect immediately." But not only that, "It also puts you in a position to communicate with a superior human race."

Have a good time and enjoy your Martini.

GIN STYLES

London Dry

Very dry, light bodied, and pungent, this is what most of us think of when we think of gin.

Plymouth

Only produced in Plymouth, this style of gin has an earthy flavour with lots of fruit and botanicals. It's quite earthy, herby and vegetal.

Genever

This style - the original - uses a malt-spirit base, making it not unlike a flavoured whiskey. Less botanical than the English styles, and more sippable.

Old Tom

A little sweeter than London Dry but more full-bodied and drier than Genever, Old Tom has been called an intermediate gin style that bridges the gap between the first two.

Navy Strength

At 58.8% alcohol by volume, this gin style packs quite a punch. Its flavour profile is crisp and clean with hints of citrusy juniper, and the high alcohol content makes it a good choice for very flavourful and aromatic cocktails.

New Western Dry Gin

Also called the New American Gin, this is a very young style that was introduced only in the 2000s. Unlike traditional gins, the New Western Dry is no longer juniper-dominant. Instead, it concentrates on botanicals and other flavours.

GIN & TONICS

Do you really know G&T? We are inviting you to change your perception. Here are the Gins and the tonic waters from which you can make your own combination (by the way, there are no better Gins than others). Botanicals vary from Gin to Gin, and are often regarded as very much of a trade secret.

CLASSIC

- Bankes London Dry. A rich blend of 10 botanicals made out of two distinct stills at Langley Distillery the oldest and the newest. Perfect for Negroni. UK
- Beefeater London Dry. Juniper mixed with cilantro and seville lemons and oranges. A favorite of generations of Martini lovers. UK
- Beefeater Pink An easy to drink strawberry Gin made in London and based on the classic award-winning Beefeater Dry recipe. UK
- Bombay Dry First introduced in 1959, it uses eight botanicals instead of Sapphire's ten. These botanicals are blended to produce a solid, versatile Gin with no one botanical dominating the others. This makes it flexible enough to be used in G&T, Martinis with twists and many more drinks. UK
- Bombay Sapphire London Dry. A balanced distillation of 10 botanicals, ideal to introduce people to Gin because it is not overpowering but very appealing to any taste. UK
- Bond Street Batch distilled using traditional botanicals. The end result is a classical old school Gin, with an interesting mixture of liquorice, spicy juniper and sweet citrus. UK
- Brecon A Welsh Gin made at the famous whisky distillery, Penderyn. Flavored with botanicals from all over the world. Very tasty indeed. UK
- Bulldog London Dry. Quadruple-distilled with juniper, dragon eye, poppy and other botanicals. Great Dirty Martini. UK
- Gordon's The world's best selling London Dry. Triple-distilled, it contains juniper berries, coriander seeds, ginger, cassia oil and nutmeg. UK
- Gordon's Pink Perfectly crafted to balance the refreshing taste of Gordon's with the natural sweetness of raspberries and strawberries, with the tang of redcurrant served up in a unique blushing tone. UK
- Hayman's London Dry. Natural botanicals are hand picked from all over the world and added to pure grain spirit to create a unique, full flavored Gin. UK

Hayman's
Old Tom

A botanically intensive and flavourful Gin, with a hint of sweetness, Old Tom Gin delivers a more rounded and softer profile than Dry Gins. UK

Hayman's Sloe

A True English Sloe Gin is defined by its balance. Not too sweet, not too tart. It has an exceptional balance in which you will find plummy aromas. UK

Seagram's

Americans' favorite Gin. A toasty juniper Gin with a powerful sweetness and smoothness; some of which comes from the classic London Dry botanicals, some from 3 months in a oak barrel. USA

Tanqueray

London Dry. Gin with a dry and crisp taste. Unique quadruple distillation, it is thought to contain as little as four botanicals. Strong juniper notes with a hint of spice. UK

PREMIUM

€ 12

Aviation

New Western Dry. Downplaying juniper and adding other botanicals such as cardamom, lavender, Indian sarsaparilla, coriander, anise and dried sweet orange peel. USA

Beefeater 24

London Dry. The grapefruit peel brings an enhanced citrus experience while the teas (Chinese green and Japanese sencha) add to the darker side, banking up the juniper. UK

Beefeater London Garden

London's Chelsea Physic Garden served as inspiration to the original Beefeater recipe, so their Master Distiller, Desmond Payne, set about creating this new, limited-edition version. As well as Beefeater's London Dry citrus notes, Garden also contains more leafy and herbal notes thanks to botanicals including lemon verbena and thyme. UK

Berkeley Square

Berkeley Square is a mellow gin, with subdued notes of juniper and a distinct yet delicious herbal quality. Not only tasty in a G&T, it can count itself as one of those gins that would be great drunk neat over ice. UK

Blackwood's 40

It's called "Vintage Dry Gin" for a reason. It is distilled in Shetland with botanicals harvested from the wild including water mint, sea pinks and meadowsweet. UK

Blackwood's 60

It's a limited edition 60% abv vintage dry Gin with only a few bottles made each year to a total of 22,000, the same as the population of Shetlands. UK

Bloom

London Dry. A great Gin with some unique botanicals as pomelo, chamomile and honeysuckle. This has quite a delicate and refined nature and makes a very good Gin and tonic. UK

Blue Ribbon

A five times distilled, pure grain Gin produced in a micro-distillery. The bain-marie distillation process using fourteen botanicals including thyme, coriander, Iris root and Jamaican pepper gives an exceptional mouth feel to the final blend. FRA

- Bobby's A Dutch Gin which was launched in 2014, Bobby's Schiedam Dry Gin features a recipe inspired by the creator's grandfather, Bobby Alfons. It's made with a combination of local and exotic ingredients, including juniper, clove, lemongrass, cubeb peppers and rosehips. Highlighting the meeting of Dutch and Indonesian flavours in the spirit, Bobby's Schiedam Dry Gin comes in a bottle which harks back to the style of vessel used to hold jenever, with a pattern inspired by Indonesian designs. NLD
- Boë Superior Scottish Dry Gin. Produced using a unique blend of 13 botanicals through an intricate process called vapour infusion. Clean, spiced and strikingly refreshing. UK
- Bombay Sapphire East Peppery and only slightly citrusy. Plenty of juniper and mellow earthiness combined with some floral and herbal notes largely owing to the lemon grass. UK
- Caorunn Scottish Dry Gin. Five unique botanicals, to be served with tonic and a freshly cut red apple to enhance its invigorating, clean and crisp taste. UK
- Citadelle Produced in Cognac, France. The only Gin distilled in Charentais pot stills. Soft but powerful. Spring Water, triple distillation and 19 botanicals. FRA
- Collesi The secret behind Collesi Gin is in the excellence and variety of its ingredients. The purest water from Monte Nerone, the best barley grown in the Collesi estates and as many as seven different types of botanicals: above all, the precious juniper berries typical of the Apennine Mountains. ITA
- Darnley's View Launched in early 2010, it is slowly seeding its way onto Gin shelves around the world. With a family background steeped in spirits, a beautiful castle, a balanced list of botanicals and some established names adding to its credentials, there is certainly a lot to talk about. UK
- Explorer's Gin Explorer's Gin is a handmade, small batch Premium London Dry Gin created using the one-shot method. They macerate fifteen botanicals, then vapour infuse their fresh botanicals to create a spirit of distinction. UK

Ferdinand's

Saar Dry Gin with over 30 botanicals infusion of riesling white wine, is part of the wave of innovation within German Gin. This Gin combines the perfect balance between sweet bitter and sour. DEU

Fifty Pounds

A crisp, clean, classic London Dry nose. Slightly earthy with a lovely complexity of juniper and lime peel with minty freshness and balancing sweetness. UK

Filliers Dry 28

The Filliers family had been producing jenever, Gin's ancestor, in Belgium since the 19th century and adding Gin to their repertoire was perhaps the next logical step. Today, their Gin is still made with a secret blend of citrus fruits, herbs and roots. Mixed peels from the off with the central creamy juniper developing. Hints of coriander, cardamom perfectly complement this to create a warming dry Gin. With 28 botanicals in this Gin, it's incredibly versatile! It brings any tonic to life, but try this in your next Negroni. BEL

Filliers Dry 28 Barrel Aged

Made by Belgian distillers, Filliers, their Barrel Aged Gin is made with the Dry Gin 28, featuring 28 carefully considered botanicals and the essential juniper berry, which has been matured for around four months in Limousin barrels that have a medium char and previously held Cognac. The maturation that this Filliers Gin has enjoyed adds an extra depth of character, a vanilla creaminess to the spirit. Barrel aged Gin is really coming into its own as a category at the moment, and it's not hard to see why when you get taste of this well textured and flavoursome spirit. BEL

Generous

The Quintessence of the art of distillation. Rich of multiple essences: citrus, pink berries, blood oranges, grey pepper, elderberries, lime, juniper. All the ingredients of the Gin are natural. Some are obtained by maceration, others by distillations in a unique and complex process. FRA

Geranium 44°

London Dry. Distilled using pure wheat grain alcohol and ten botanicals including geranium, and one secret ingredient - all of which steeped for 48 hours prior to distillation. UK

Geranium 55°

A special edition, higher strength bottling of the very tasty Geranium London Dry Gin. To celebrate the fifth anniversary of the brand, they've created a Gin bottled at 55% ABV. Once again, it features the unusual though undoubtedly delightful geranium plant as a botanical. Big, punchy wafts of juniper, bright lemon zest and the aromatic, herbaceous geranium. Works excellently in a Martini. UK

Giass

Giass' soul is the expression of the fusion of its 18 botanicals, mixed in a sophisticated distillation process which gave birth to a different gin: a complex spirit, authentic and immediate, to be discovered also on the rocks. ITA

Gil Torbato

Created with a rural production method, using carefully selected botanicals in Calabria. Juniper and PGI lemons of Rocca Imperiale are the main components of The Authentic Rural Gin. It also stands out in the filtering phase, carried out roughly through a simple linen cloth, leaving its original color: the porbato version is obtained by burning the juniper with peat of the Sila which gives it the pleasant smoked aftertaste. ITA

Gin Agricolo Blagheur

A herbal scented gin with aromatic notes of cumin, coriander, mint and zedoary blended with the aroma of juniper. The taste is dry and firm, but softened by the scent of the rose, marjoram, orris, and tansy, with a soft herbal and mint aftertaste. ITA

Gin Agricolo Gadan

Deliciously floral Italian gin from the Gin Agricolo range, with waves of citrus blossom, iris and mint joining the classic juniper core. ITA

Gin del Professore A la Madame

This unique Gin, embodies the spirit of the Italian herbalist tradition. Obtained by mixing together distillates of aromatic plants, infused with spices and flowers, after a slow maturation it acquires a fascinating amber color, distinctive and unique. Gin Madame is characterized by a delicate juniper aroma, enriched by intense scents of flowers and herbs. ITA

Gin del Professore Monsieur

This gin arises from a blend of spices and natural herbs selected in order to create this enchanting product. Juniper, lavender, angelica, orange, rose, chamomile and other herbs give life to an unusual product with vivid floral notes. ITA

Gunpowder Irish Gin

A slow distilled and handmade gin from 11 botanicals including oriental spices and gunpowder tea. Fresh citrus notes with spice. IRL

Hendrick's

Scottish Dry Gin. An unusual and selected Gin with limited production that finds in cucumber and rose the perfect combination. It's not for everyone (but it's for me). UK

Hepple

Uses three techniques to capture the full range of flavour from the botanicals bringing them as alive in the bottle as they were on the hills. Juniper is the leading act, tasting brighter, richer and more compete than is possible with conventional distillation. The green juniper comes from the native plants at Hepple. UK

Iradier Y Bulfy

Manuel Iradier y Bulfy was a Basque explorer and and he explored a vast and savage territory in Equatorial Africa before 1900. Iriader y Bulfy is a unique Gin made from 100% Basque Barley that creates a warm, sweet and rounded base. The Gin is then distilled with Basque Juniper Berries and classic botanicals, along with exotic ingredients such as Cocoa Beans and Black Guinean Pepper inspired my Manuel Iradier's African adventure. ESP

Isfjord

Gently hand-distilled 5 times with pure iceberg water from the icefiord of Ilulissat in Greenland and coupled with the flavours of the finest selected botanicals. DNK

Jensen's Old Tom

Their Old Tom recipe was taken from a distiller's handbook from the 1840s. It is a true Old Tom Gin, similar to those used by the bartenders of the mid-to-late 1800s. Unsweetened and earthy, it has a deep flavour that adds complexity to many drinks. IRL

Jinzu

Jinzu Gin brings English and Japanese traditions together to create an exciting, intriguing spirit. It's made with a blend of English Gin (featuring juniper, coriander, angelica, yuzu and Japanese cherry blossom as botanicals) and sake, which brings a luxurious, creamy mouth feel and a subtle, compelling sweetness to its flavour profile. UK

Mayfair

Produced with the best ingredients at one of the few remaining distilleries in London by a Master Distiller whose family business is still thriving after 300 years. UK

- Martin Miller's London Dry. It's a premium Gin made from 10 carefully selected botanicals blended with the purest Icelandic water, the ultimate in good taste. UK
- Mombasa London Dry. A classically juniper - forward Gin with a citrus and herbal finish. Perfect for cocktails and mixed drinks. UK
- No. 3 The only London Dry Gin produced at one of Holland's oldest distilleries, still owned by a family firm. Berry Bros. & Rudd, that has over 300 years of experience. UK
- OMG It is created through a process of triple column distillation of 16 unique herbs and spices macerated in a base alcohol, which collectively yield one of the most complex Gins on the market. In the flavor profile are such traditional spices as juniper, coriander, calamus and angelica. But there are also non-traditional ones such as grains of paradise, lavender flower, and blossoms from the Czech national tree - the small-leaved linden. CZE
- Panarea The pearl of the Eolie Islands. Inspired by the memories of the tiny island paradise was born an Italian premium botanical Gin which carries hints of myrtle berries, fresh citrus and other secret botanicals. ITA
- Plymouth Navy Strength First went to sea in 1793 with the Royal Navy. When gunpowder goes bang the proof of alcohol strength is at least 100 proof of 57% alcohol by volume. UK
- Plymouth Original A unique style of Gin. Since 1793 it has been distilled from a unique blend of 7 botanicals, soft Dartmoor water and pure grain alcohol. UK
- Portobello Road No. 171 This Gin has realized by the award-winning Notting Hill bar, Portobello Star, home of the Ginstitute. This is a place where one can learn a lot about Gin so you would expect Portobello Road No. 17 to be rather good, and indeed it is. It's a old-style London Dry Gin, containing traditional botanicals and spices. UK

Roby Marton

Despite the english sound of the name, Roby Marton was born in Treviso and he started to distil his own Gin, that is becoming famous all over the world. The Gin is produced from the best cereals. Italian production and spring water, subjected to two processes of distillation. For its preparation a part of the final distillate is put into a container in a cold infusion for the final refinement. ITA

Sabatini

An excellent Gin requires constant testing, a careful combination of flavours and choice of various home-grown botanicals, elements that Alessandro Palazzi helped to achieve with his experience. There are precisely nine Tuscan botanicals: juniper, coriander, iris, fennel, lavender, olive leaves, thyme, verbena and sage. The goal is to create a traditional London Dry Gin uniquely expressing the inimitable scent of Tuscany and its hillsides. ITA

Sipsmith London Dry

The quintessential expression of traditional London Dry Gin. Bold, complex and aromatic-smooth enough for a Martini, but rich and balanced, perfect for a G&T. UK

Star of Bombay

This is a higher-strength, super-premium variant of Bombay Sapphire. The classic notes of juniper, angelica and coriander have been intensified, with the addition of bergamot and ambrette seeds offering extra exoticness. A rich and intense Gin. UK

Sylvius

Gin fans around the world probably have a poster of Franciscus Sylvius (we do!), as he was the first clever chap to register a juniper berry distillate called Genievre which eventually became the Gin we know today. This is why the Dutch distillery Onder de Boompjes has named their fantastic spirit after him, calling it 'Sylvius Gin'. It's inspired by a number of traditional recipes, using 10 fantastically fresh botanicals. Malt, cinnamon and vibrant star anise are the main players here, with a flowery lavender hint and some cheeky liquorice hiding deep within. NLD

Tanqueray No. Ten

An exceptionally smooth Gin. Named after the number of the still in which it is made. The superior taste is the result of fruit botanicals such as fresh white grapefruits, whole limes along with juniper, coriander and a hint of camomile. UK

Tanqueray Rangpur

A bit like Tanqueray London Dry but with added hints of floral lime, herbs, and a powdery ginger note. Ideal for summer G&T. UK

The London No.1

A turquoise - blue coloured Gin quadruple distilled in small batches, it's made from the highest quality English grain spirit and contains 13 key botanicals. UK

Ungava

Don't be fooled by the yellow color. This is a Gin that is probably going to be loved by those who don't mind a little bit of exotic variance, thanks to a series of unique botanicals native to the northern Quebec region such as cloudberry, wild rose hips, Labrador tea, Arctic blend and crowberries. CAN

Vallombrosa

The Benedictine Monks Vallombrosani have excelled in history to tradition and culture. Depositories of ancient knowledge for the preparation of medicaments and conditioners for the treatment of diseases of time after experiencing the distillation, alcohol entrusted the task of making taste to the human palate synergies of various elements. The craftsmanship that distinguishes the Benedictine Monks Vallombrosani, allows us to make use of products that still preserve the authenticity and flavor of many centuries ago. ITA

Warner Edwards Harrington Dry Gin

The complex, spicy flavour lends itself very well to a classic G&T, whilst its crisp and clean nature means that it works tremendously neat, or in short cocktails, such as a Dry Martini. They use 11 botanicals; angelica root, black pepper, cardamom, cinnamon, coriander seed, dried elderflower, ground nutmeg, juniper, lemon peel, orange peel and one secret ingredient. UK

Xoriguer

A cult Gin from Mahon in Menorca, it has been made there since the British occupation in the 18th century. Unusually, Xoriguer is made in wood-fired potstills from distilled wine (eau-de-vie) rather than the more usual grain-based distillate, and is rested in American oak barrels before bottling. ESP

- Bandiera A 100% Made in Italy London Dry Gin handcrafted with 19 Ligurian botanicals like marjoram, rosemary, lemon and chamomile. ITA
- Brockman's London Dry. A very unusual Gin, flavored with ten botanicals and designed to be drunk over ice rather than with tonic due to its extremely fruity, quite sweet flavors. UK
- Brooklyn American Gin distilled in an old fashioned handcrafted copper Still, one small batch at a time using only the finest botanicals and locally purchased fresh fruits. USA
- Citadelle Reserve Aged for 6 months in 12 - years old oak casks that had a light char. The ageing has clearly enriched the aromatic palette of the original Gin, with vanilla notes seeping through. FRA
- Citadelle No Mistake Old Tom This Old Tom style Gin has been recreated using caramelised Caribbean brown sugar that is added to Citadelle Reserve which is then aged further in barrels. This sweetness enhances the floral aromas and vanilla notes, leading a fresh juicy finish with some spice. FRA
- Cobalto 17 The first Gin produced in the Douro Valley. This Portuguese Gin owes his balance and freshness to the combination between craft production methods - distilled in traditional alembic and bottled by hand and the incorporation of six botanical thought to ensure the integrity of a Classic Gin and irreverence of a new generation of Gin with fruity and seductive aroma. PT
- Death's Door American Dry Gin. A narrow list of botanicals focuses flavor very tightly on a coriander spice and fresh juniper. Very mild on the heat. USA
- Edinburgh Made by Spencerfield Spirits Company, this delicious Gin is distilled in Edinburgh with the classic Gin botanicals (juniper, coriander, citrus peel, angelica and orris root), plus the addition of Scottish juniper, pine, heather, and milk thistle. Upon tasting there are warm peppery spicy notes and a slight creaminess in the body while the flavors remain bright. UK

Elephant

An award-winning handcrafted premium Gin of 45% alcoholic volume made with rare African botanicals. Elephant Gin is distilled using 14 botanicals, including rare African ingredients that haven't been used in Gin making before. The botanicals are hand-selected to limit any impurities and ensure only the highest quality ingredients are used. Amongst the Elephant Gin botanicals are: buchu, baobab, lion's tail, devil's claw, african wormwood, apple, juniper, ginger, mountain pine, orange peel and pimienta. DEU

G'Vine Floraison and Nouaison

This proud pair of "Gins de France" are intended as alternatives to the classic London Dry. Inextricably linked to the grape vine, they're made in the Cognac region using grape spirit and feature vine flowers among the botanicals. FRA

Gin Mare

Inspired by botanicals grown in the Mediterranean, time, basil, lemon peel, olives, rosemary, individually distilled in a custom-made still and then soaked in advance for more than a year in clay jars. ESP

Gin Sul

The Gin Sul is an artisanal distillate produced in Hamburg with Portuguese botanicals, including juniper, rosemary, lemons and coriander. The aromas are fresh and Mediterranean and the taste is soft, spicy and very pleasant, with evocative marine recalls. DEU

Glorious

Distilled in New York, this is the first Gin to be produced at the newly established Breuckelen Distilling Company, in Brooklyn. Made from a neutral wheat spirit and a blend of five locally sourced distinct botanicals, namely lemon, rosemary, ginger, grapefruit and, of course, juniper. Gin this Gin is made from start to finish, raw ingredients to bottling at the distillery by Brad himself, the master distiller. Clean and vibrant on the nose, fresh on the palate, exceptionally balanced and most importantly, fun to drink! USA

Gold 999.9

Gin Gold is produced in a small distillery situated in a small town in the Alsace. After you have obtained the alcohol in a first distillation, are two of the distillations to refine the quality, and, finally, a distillation and an infusion with the different botanical give life to the Gin Gold 999.9. Part of the process is still made in a gold pot. FRA

GUD

A gin set between past and future, true to the British tradition of London Dry Gin, and at the same time innovative, with a strong bond to aromas and flavours of our land. The unmistakable taste of GUD is the result of the harmony between 20 botanicals originating from the classical English garden, with its roses, the geometrical Italian garden, with its citrus fruits, the Mediterranean evergreen shrubs, roots and wild berries, and exotic herbs coming from the boundaries of the former British Empire. ITA

Hernö Navy Strength

Hernö Navy Strength Gin, a bold flagship rich in flavour, is made from the same distilled gin as Hernö Gin, but diluted to 57% instead of 40,5%. The difference in aroma and taste is very clear and Hernö Navy Strength has an overall richer flavour with bolder juniper, coriander and citrus. SE

Martin Miller's Westbourne Dry Gin

Westbourne Dry Gin is a versatile addition to any cocktail. An emphasis on the spicier, peppery notes of cassia and nutmeg harnessed to a higher strength make this the perfect gin for classic cocktails and martinis. UK

Martin Miller's 9 Moons

Martin Miller's first cask-aged gin, 9 Moons is matured for nine months in American oak bourbon barrels. Oak adds a slight vanilla sweetness to 9 Moons, that in turn enhances and amplifies the gin botanicals that lie behind the essential juniper. Citrus notes and some light oak in the finish. UK

Monkey 47 Dry Gin

Produced in the Black Forest from no less than 47 botanicals. Unusual ingredients include cranberries and others, mostly from the Region. Aged for 100 days in earthenware casks. DEU

Monkey 47 Sloe Gin

A peppery, tangy, complex spirit made by macerating Black Forest sloes in spirit for three months. This masterfully handcrafted and unfiltered sloe Gin is unique in its complexity while accentuating great British traditions and the nativeness of the Black Forest. Distilled in small batches from 47 predominantly unusual but regional botanicals and macerated with wild-growing, handpicked sloe berries from the Black Forest, this Schwarzwald sloe Gin is a true MONKEY 47, but nevertheless a whole different one. DEU

Old English

Made from a 1783 recipe, distilling eleven botanicals in Angela, the oldest pot still being used in England today. And by using recycled bottles, organic sealing and silk printed labels, they are reinvigorating the way English Gin was made and distributed back then. Truly original. UK

Roku

In Japanese, Roku translates as the number six. Inside every bottle of Roku Gin, you will find six very special botanicals that are sourced in Japan. Unparalleled soft, round and subtly sweet taste. Each botanical has been harvested at the peak of its season to extract the best flavour, and distilled to fully embody the blessings of nature. JPN

Silent Pool

A classic Gin at heart. It is full-bodied and fresh, with depth, clarity, and above all else flavour. Produced with 24 unique botanicals, Silent Pool Gin is a rich and clean juniper-driven spirit with floral layers of lavender and chamomile. Fresh notes of citrus and kafir lime are grounded with the subtle sweetness of local honey, creating a well-balanced Gin that is both traditional and refreshingly individual. UK

Sipsmith VJOP

A 2013 release, this Gin turns the juniper up to 11 as well as being bottled at higher strength of 57.7%. The process includes a 'triple juniper' technique which adds the juniper at three stages - first it is macerated for three days, then more juniper is added to the pot still and finally vapor infused into the spirit. UK

Solo Wild

Mediterranean, intense, persistent, scents of myrtle, rosemary, fresh Sardinian coast juniper, iodized, with light spicy notes and finally with pine resin perfume. ITA

Tarquin's

Orris root from Morocco, green cardamom seeds from Guatemala, cinnamon from Madagascar and Devon violets from... the distiller's garden! Only small batches of this artisan Gin are produced using a flame-fired copper pot still called Tamara. It's then bottled by hand and sent off into the world, to spread the news that Cornwall is producing some fabulous Gin. UK

The Botanist

The artisanal Dry Gin from the Hebridean island of Islay, infused with 31 botanicals of which 22 are native, distilled in a unique Lomond Still, the "Ugly Betty". UK

VII Hills

VII Hills London Dry Gin was released in MMXIV (AKA - 2014), inspired by Italian ingredients and crafted in England. Its name is naturally inspired by the city of Rome and the hill it was founded upon. The Gin consists of a melange of Italian-sourced ingredients including celery, artichoke hearts and fennel. lavender, horse parsley and chervil, among others. Very fragrant and herbal, this ought to make a fantastic Negroni. ITA

Villa Ascenti

Villa Ascenti is a new super-premium Italian gin rooted in provenance and brings local, fresh ingredients from Piemonte to life. Its use of locally grown ingredients from the foothills of Piemonte, alongside some of the more classic botanicals associated with gin, has allowed us to create a high-quality liquid, which we hope existing and new gin drinkers will love. ITA

Whitley Neill

London Dry Gin. Produced in small batches in an antique copper pot still, it contains two African botanicals-baobab fruit and Cape gooseberries. UK

Bathub

First, copper pot-distilled gin is made with juniper, coriander and other fragrant botanicals. Then, they take a portion of this gin and painstakingly infuse it with a further six fresh botanicals - a process which takes a whole week to do. This infusion process allows those fresh botanical flavours – too delicate to survive traditional distillation – to shine through, and Bathub Gin is left with its unique flavour and distinctive hue. USA

Bathub Old Tom

This Old Tom gin is the perfect spirit for those looking for something a little sweeter. This gold medal winner is made using the classic Bathub Gin, and offers a full-bodied sweetness perfectly balanced with juniper and spice notes. USA

Bathub Sloe Gin

Crafted with up to half a pound of sloes in every bottle, this cold-compounded sloe gin is a blend of copper pot still gin and bundles of juniper berries, cassia, coriander, orange peel and more. It's big, full-bodied and bursting with flavour. USA

Beefeater Burrough's Reserve

Based on a recipe developed by Beefeater founder James Burrough in the 1860s, Burrough's Reserve is hand crafted using the distiller's original copper 'Still Number 12', which has a small capacity of 268 litres. Current master distiller Desmond Payne has recreated the Gin from Burrough's original recipe to create a Gin with a pale gold appearance and slight oaky character. Burrough's Reserve is rested in Jean De Lillet barrels made of French Oak which is said to impart "sweeter," smoother and more "creamy" notes, with long lasting floral notes. A Gin to be sipped neat while thinking of present and future journeys. UK

Bluecoat

American Dry Gin. Distilled in a custom-built, hand-hammered copper pot still using organic juniper berries, giving it earthy, spicy juniper notes. USA

Citadelle Extreme Wild Blossom

A total of 20 aromatics create the singular taste of Citadelle Wild Blossom Extrême. On the same base of spices as Original Citadelle, Wild Blossom offers an even more floral profile with a new infusion of wild cherry blossom petals. Its fresh and poetic character is accentuated by a five month ageing process in sweet cherrywood casks, a species of wood characterized by red fruits and fresh hazelnut. FRA

Dol Gin

From Italy's Zu Plun distillery comes the first Gin distilled in the Dolomites with 24 alpine herbs, lemon from Garda Lake and elderflower. ITA

Ki No Bi

Ki No Bi ('The Beauty of the Seasons') is inspired by tradition and is distilled, mixed and bottled in Kyoto. The Ki No Bi Gin is made in a recognizable dry style but with a distinct Japanese accent. It is produced with Japanese botanicals such as yellow yuzu from the north of Kyoto Prefecture, Hinoki wood onions (Japanese cypress), bamboo, Gyokuro tea from the Uji region and green sansho berries (Japanese pepper). JPN

Leopold's

Gin production is limited to fifty cases at a time and the botanicals include "hand-zested American pummelos". This hand crafted, hand bottled, hand labeled, hand numbered small batch Gin is truly unique. USA

Leopold's Navy Strength

Stefano Pasini's favorite Gin. Whereas the small batch Gin lures you in with soft, supple notes, the Navy Strength declares itself from the first whiff. Juniper, bergamot and lemon up front and an equally powerful flavor which dominates neat and in cocktails. USA

Magellan

This blue gin derives most of its color from Iris Flowers. Imported from France with a 4x distilled wheat grain base and botanicals. FRA

No.209
